GOT OUT OF GEAR

WELL OILED HOUSE MACHINERY SLIPPED SOME COGS.

FAILED TO GET MESSAGE

Custom Was for President to Furnish Copy, But Wilson Put One Over On Them.

(By W. C. Van Cleve.)

Washington, D. C., July 1.—The house has enjoyed another season with a distinguished caller, the president of the United States. After hours of nervous preparation involving everybody from Speaker Clark down to the house carpenter, the president came, met the house and senate in joint session, read a strong message carefully couched in choice English and disappeared in the short space of ten minutes. The message pleaded for an immediate revision of the currency laws and was well received. But what a lot of trouble it causes to make a slight variation from the usual procedure.

For a hundred years it has been the custom for presidents to send a message in duplicate to the house and senate by special messenger. When the messenger appears the house and senate suspend business for a few moments while he announces the purpose of his call and the business is resumed. Before the body adjourns during the day the speaker of the house and the vice president in the senate lay before their members the message, it is read by the regular reading clerk, and the machinery continues to run without an unusual click or jar.

But when the president delivers his own message here is what happens: He sends word to the speaker of his intention to call. A concurrent resolution is introduced and passed by the house inviting the senate to meet with the house at a certain hour on the agreed date. The senate must pass the resolution agreeing to the plan. Then the speaker has a conference with certain house officials as to arrangements in detail. When it is announced in the newspapers there will be a grand rush for the galleries of the house, but the galleries only hold eight hundred, and the number of visitors must be limited. So special tickets are issued and no one not holding one of these special tickets is admitted to the galleries on this occasion. An extra number of policemen are summoned and they are stationed in the corridors and at the elevator landings. Little fences are built across the corridors with an opening or gate just large enough to let one through. After a man gets by all these obstacles and reaches the gallery floor, the doorkeeper will admit him to the gallery if he has a special ticket good for this day and date only. Holders of the tickets usually begin coming soon after breakfast, though the show does not come off until after noon.

When the president made his first appearance two tickets were issued to each member of the house and senate, which was considerably in excess of the number of seats available. Several members also listened to the appeals of friends and induced the doorkeepers to let them in, which resulted in other members' wives being unable to find room and considerable confusion resulted. This time the speaker and doorkeeper issued only one ticket to each member of the house and senate and the doorkeepers were given iron-clad instructions.

Among the gallery visitors during the last visit were Mrs. Wilson and daughters and Secretary of State William J. Bryan. According to the resolution the house suspended business at thirty minutes past twelve to receive the senate, but the president had arranged to start from the white house at five minutes before one in order to reach the capitol at 1 o'clock. Here was a discrepancy of thirty minutes, in which the members of both branches of congress must sit in dignity and neglect the business of the country. The vice president took his place alongside the speaker and a committee was appointed from both bodies to receive the president and escort him to the floor of the house. By the use of the telephone he was induced to hurry up his schedule a little, and he arrived a few minutes before 1.

The sergeant-at-arms of the house, followed by the joint committee of the house and senate, escorted the president from the speaker's room to the house floor. Applause greeted him as he took his place at the reading clerk's desk and shook hands with the speaker and vice president. Speaker Clark announced "the president of the United States." The president read his message in clear, well articulated and impressive tones, and as he concluded was again warmly applauded. He again shook hands with the presiding officers, calmly stuck the message in his pocket and returned to the white house.

The joint session was immediately dissolved, the senators returned to the senate chamber and business was resumed in the house. But excitement reigned among the clerks. The house reporters had expected to use the typewritten copy of the message for the Congressional Record, there was no "copy in writing" on the speaker's desk and he didn't know just how to refer the document to a committee after it had gone to the winds with no visible residue, the bill clerks had no copy for the public printer, the journal clerk had no copy for his journal, and the printing office was telephoning frantically for the valuable document. The reporters finally got the message in the Record, and with this as "copy" the whole matter was straightened out in three or four days. The president, serene in the consciousness of a duty well done, will likely never know what a trouble his visit was.

Representative Booher, who was appointed a member of the congressional committee to represent the house at the Gettysburg reunion, will leave for that place Thursday. The old soldiers are expecting a great time, and the affair will go down in history as a memorable event. But the heat is so great that many of those who go this week will be taking a risk second only to that of years ago.

The senatorial lobby inquiry, in which Senator Reed is taking an important part, is stirring up all sorts of excitement among the high tariff leaders. Enough has already been developed to prove that the beneficiaries of legislative favoritism kept an organized force at work for years in an effort to perpetuate in office those who were subservient to their greed. The Mulhall expose, showing that large amounts of money was furnished to defeat low tariff men and to elect high tariff men, regardless of the public welfare, has caused a profound sensation.

Mrs. John Hawley and son were Fourth of July visitors in St. Joseph.

SENATOR A. B. FALL.

New Mexican Representative Denies That He Is In League With Mexican Revolutionists.

Senator Fall is a member of the senate committee to investigate the charges that Americans have been assisting in fomenting and financing the recent revolutions and counter revolutions in Mexico. He read with interest a report from Mexico City that Mexican officials charged certain members of the committee with being in league with the revolutionists and asserted that one of them gave a $300,000 check to aid the revolutionary cause. "As far as I am concerned," said Senator Fall, "it is all rot." When the committee investigating the alleged part played by American capital in the Mexican revolution returned from the frontier there were reports that Senator Fall favored intervention and was working to that end. Since then, however, he has come out strongly against intervention.

PEACE AND UNION

MEANING OF THE FIFTY YEARS SINCE GETTYSBURG.

WILSON TO VETERANS

President's Gettysburg Address a Reminder of That Other Eloquent Speech On the Same Field.

Gettysburg Battlefield, July 4.—President Wilson today delivered a memorable speech on this historic spot. The address in full follows:

Friends and Fellow Citizens—I need not tell you what the battle of Gettysburg meant. These gallant men in blue and gray sit all about us here. Many of them met here upon this ground in grim and deadly struggle. Upon these famous fields and hillsides their comrades died about them. In their presence it were an impertinence to discourse upon how the battle went, how it ended, what it signified. But fifty years have gone by since then, and I crave the privilege of speaking to you for a few minutes of what those fifty years have meant.

What have they meant? They have meant peace and union and vigor and the maturity and might of a great nation. How wholesome and healing the peace has been! We have found one another again as brothers and comrades in arms, enemies no longer, generous friends rather, our battles long past, the quarrel forgotten, except that we shall not forget the splendid valor, the manly devotion, of the men then arrayed against one another, now grasping hands and smiling into each other's eyes. How complete the union has become and how dear to all of us, how unquestioned, how benign and majestic, as state after state has been added to this our great family of freemen! How handsome the vigor, the maturity, the might, of the great nation we love with undivided hearts—how full of large and confident promise that a life will be wrought out that will crown its strength with gracious justice and with a happy welfare that will touch all alike with deep contentment! We are debtors to those fifty crowded years. They have made us heirs to a mighty heritage.

But do we deem the nation complete and finished? These venerable men crowding here to this famous field have set us a great example of devotion and utter sacrifice. They were willing to die that the people might live. But their task is done. Their day is turned into evening. They look to us to perfect what they established. Their work is handed on to us to be done in another way, but not in another spirit. Our day is not over. It is upon us in full tide.

Have affairs paused? Does the nation stand still? Is what the fifty years have wrought since those days of battle finished, rounded out and completed? Here is a great people, great with every force that has ever beaten in the lifeblood of mankind. And it is secure. There is no one within its borders, there is no power among the nations of the earth, to make it afraid. But has it yet squared itself with its own great standards set up at its birth, when it made that first noble, naive appeal to the moral judgment of mankind to take notice that a government had now at last been established which was to serve men, not masters? It is secure in everything except the satisfaction that its life is right, adjusted to the uttermost to the standards of righteousness and humanity. The days of sacrifice and cleansing are not closed. We have harder things to do than were done in the heroic days of war, because harder to see clearly, requiring more vision, more calm balance of judgment, a more candid searching of the very springs of right.

Look around you upon the field of Gettysburg! Picture the array, the fierce heats and agony of battle, column hurled against column, battery bellowing to battery! Valor? Yes! Greater no man shall see in war, and self sacrifice and loss to the uttermost.

93 BABIES ENTER

AT THAT COMMITTEE HAD TO TURN SOME AWAY.

'TWAS VERY SCIENTIFIC

The Prize Winners.

Sweepstakes, child scoring highest in contest—Harry Robey Trullinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trullinger of Maryville.

Class A, best baby, boy or girl, 6 to 18 months old—Harry Robey Trullinger, Maryville, and Helen May Corken, Burlington Junction; second prize to Marvin McGinniss and Mildred A. Brown.

Class C, best baby, 2½ to 3½ years old, boy or girl. First prizes—boy, Kenneth M. Evans, Maryville, and girl, Helen Isabelle Hamlin, Maryville. Second prizes—boy, Edward William Dietz, and girl, Beverly Alice Martin.

Class D, best scoring pair of twins, first to Harrel Lee and Helen Lou Busby, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Busby of near Maryville. Second prize to Madgel Arreta and Marjorie Arreta Penisten, children of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Penisten of Maryville.

The better babies contest on the Fourth demonstrated the fact that Nodaway county raises high scoring babies as well as high scoring cattle and hogs and corn.

If it had been possible for everyone to have witnessed the work of the physicians and nurses Friday morning as they measured and weighed, examined teeth and gums and eyes, noses, throats and ears, they would have declared it the most interesting sight they had ever witnessed, and the prettiest as well.

It was a hard ordeal, too, for the babies and their mothers, as the weather was hot, and the ninety-three babies were mighty hot and tired and cross, and some of them frightened nearly to death at the peculiar processes they were put through. Quite a number went through the whole performance without a whimper or the wearing off of their smiles, while many others were badly frightened at other babies crying or by some one of several things being done to them in the examination. Nearly all the babies were more or less frightened by the work of the dentists or the examination of their throats, while some refused point blank to be measured or weighed. It was certainly funny to see the various ways in which the babies showed their likes and dislikes.

Some one has asked who the judges were. The tape line, foot rule, scales, dentists, and eye, ear and nose specialists were the judges, and the score was made from what these excellent judges registered. The mothers learned much from yesterday's experience, all wishing to know if there was anything deficient in their children.

Should a contest be held here again all those who were in charge will have a better idea how it should be conducted, and system will be the first thing thought of. The committee was not expecting nearly so many babies to enter and had to turn many away because there were no more score cards and no time for examination. But the entire thing went off in much better order than would be thought under the circumstances, and if the success of the first better babies contest is any criterion, the next contest will bring out 500 babies or more.

It was the hardest day's committee work put up in Maryville, and the work of scoring ninety-three babies on eleven points each was just finished in time to announce the winners at nearly 5 o'clock.

The score cards can be called for at Mrs. J. W. Ray's, 403 South Main street, or will be sent by mail if a self-addressed stamped envelope will be sent to Mrs. Ray.

The executive committee in charge of the baby show was Mrs. J. W. Ray, chairman; Mrs. W. C. Van Cleve, Mrs. Berney Harris, Mrs. W. B. Price, Mrs. M. A. Turner and Mrs. C. Vilas Martin.

The reception committee was composed of Mrs. Eugene Ogden, Mrs. S. E. Farmer, Mrs. James B. Robinson and Mrs. Leslie Dean.

The badge committee was composed of Mrs. W. B. Price, Mrs. Omer Catterson, Mrs. D. E. McDonald, Mrs. Wm. Wise.

Those taking care of the babies were Mrs. C. Vilas Martin, Dr. Clara Willett, Miss Clara Roelofson, Miss Bird Briggs. The assistants to the nurses were Mrs. F. P. Robinson, Mrs. J. D. Richey, Mrs. G. E. Flemming and Mrs. J. H. VanHorn.

The Fourth of July committee and the Mothers' Circle wish to thank all those who helped make this contest a success, and most especially the doctors, dentists, nurses and secretaries who conducted the examinations, also Prof. V. I. Moore, who tabulated and officially passed upon the score cards, and the house committee of the First Christian church, and J. H. VanHorn, the janitor, who so patiently waited on everybody.

The following were the babies entered in the show:

Class A—Teddy Morris, William Hantze, Majorie Arreta Penisten, Madgel Arreta Penisten, William Stillwell, Jean Hope Croy, Peter H. Dietz, Jr., Adolph Farrar, Mary Rose Leuck, Donald L. ALL CELEBRATED

A GREAT SUCCESS WAS THE BIG PICNIC HELD IN MARYVILLE.

5000 PEOPLE AT DINNER

They Cleaned Up Everything But the Pickles—An All-Day Session That Was All That Was Promised.

Five thousand people were fed at the barbecue yesterday noon, more people came to town during the afternoon, and the farmers came in the evening. Music, firecrackers, the baby show, the barbecue, speaking, contests, ball games, picnics and the fireworks display filled the day from early morning until midnight. It was a big crowd at a big celebration, with no serious accidents.

The biggest part of the day came with the fireworks display, which began at 9 o'clock and lasted for two hours. It fulfilled all promises made for it and was indeed a beautiful sight. The crowd which witnessed it filled Main street from Fourth to Second, the court house yard, and there was a plentiful sprinkling of people on the roofs of the store buildings and in office windows.

In spite of the fact that almost twice as much beef was cooked for the barbecue this year than last, it did not feed yesterday's crowd. The five thousand people who were served cleaned up every scrap of the food except the pickles, said Martin Borrusch this morning.

The other events of the day were no less successful, and the W. O. W. and Owls lodges must be commended for giving Maryville this celebration. The Missouri Ladies Military band and the Maryville Concert band kept the day filled with good music. The baby show was a great success. The speeches of Hon. L. V. Stigall of St. Joseph and Hon. J. E. Fitzgerald of Kansas City, together with the ball games, exhibition drills of the W. O. W. drill teams of Maryville and Stanberry and the eating contest made a lively afternoon.

The pie and bun eating and milk drinking contest furnished a lot of fun for the onlookers. The contest was for the rapidity of eating a prescribed amount of the food and not for the greatest amount eaten. Harry Carsten ate his half pie in the quickest time and carried off the honors in that event. Will Gaskell won the first prize for drinking a pint of milk faster than anyone else, and Paul Coleman took the prize in the bun contest. He had a harder task than the others, for his hands were tied behind his back, the bun was suspended on a string and smeared with molasses.

Not all of the celebrating was done on the square, however. The larger part of the downtown crowd was made up of visitors from nearby towns and the surrounding country. The townspeople, many of them, went on picnics for the day, coming back for the fireworks display in the evening. There were picnics at the Normal park, in the school yards, on the lawns and at every picnickable place near town.

Everybody in Maryville celebrated.

BIG DAY FOR POP.

Not Pap-a, But the Liquid Kind, of Which Over 7,000 Bottles were Consumed.

Pop—pop—pop! they went all day yesterday—not the firecrackers, but the caps of the soda pop bottles. Over 7,000 bottles of pop were sold to the thirsty celebrators. It was a bigger day for the strawberry, lemon, iron brew crowd than was the white way celebration day.

Not so with the other bottled liquids. The saloons did a much smaller business yesterday than they did white way day. It was a comparatively sober and well behaved crowd which came to town, as the police court records showed this morning.

The ice cream parlors and soda fountains also had a heavy trade yesterday, but today business of every kind is very light, much more so than the usual Saturday business.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Denny of Fillmore spent the Fourth in Maryville with Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Pearce.

FORTY-THREE NOTCHES.

And Each Represents a Man, On Old-Time War Relic in Toggery Window.

Forty-three men killed. This is the record of one of the revolvers in the display window of the Toggery Shop. The revolver originally belonged to the famous bandit, Jesse James, who cut thirty-eight notches on the handle of it—a notch for every man killed with it. The other five notches on the handle were put there by John (Step-and-a-half) Keegin, a member of the James gang, a former resident of Maryville and father of Jim and Pat Keegin, who are now in the painting and paper hanging business here.

W. F. Smith now owns this old gun. He obtained it years ago from John Keegin, first taking it away from Keegin when he was making threats after an election, and later buying it from him. Keegin told the following story to Mr. Smith as to how he came into the possession of the gun.

Keegin was with the James boys, one of the Younger boys, Charlie Wills (a cousin of W. F. Smith), and some others of the gang on a raid. They were being pursued and got into a shooting scrape with their followers. A bullet struck Keegin's thumb, knocking his revolver from his hand. Jesse James, who was riding next to Keegin, turned and gave him this revolver, which Keegin kept from that time until he sold it to Mr. Smith.

Crop Prospects Near Ravenwood.

This is harvest time and the busiest season of the year. Our farmers are moving along very nicely with their wheat harvest. A few are done and all soon will be if this fine weather continues. The wheat is a fine quality and not damaged except a little in low places. The oats will be cut next week and are fine, the best for years. Corn is growing very nicely and promises the best crop for several years. The rains are sufficient for all kinds of vegetation. The gardens are looking very fine and the housewife has no trouble in preparing something good to eat.

Miss Davis Recovering.

Miss Ruth Davis, who has been confined to her bed for the past four weeks, is recovering nicely and is able to sit up each day.

BANDS REAPED REWARD.

Each Received $10 From Patriotic Naturalized Citizen When They Played "America."

Mr. Charles Peterson of Houston, Texas, who, with several members of his family, are in the city at the Ream hotel, while Mr. Peterson is attending to business for the Texas Pacific Railroad company, gave each one of the Maryville bands a check for $10 on the Fourth as an appreciation of their music.

The men's band, directed by Professor Maulding, and Miss Nash's Ladies Military band were playing together in several pieces early in the day when Mr. Peterson was in the real estate office of Holmes & Wolfert, in full view of the band stand. When they began the well known air of "America" Mr. Peterson sprang to his feet and said:

"I was born in Denmark and grew to manhood there, but whenever I hear that air I feel that I am the best American in the country, because I absolutely know what liberty and freedom is, and every drop of my blood leaps in response to the spirit of that song. I want to do something to show my appreciation of those splendid words every time I hear it."

So the two Maryville bands reaped the reward Friday when one soul on the grounds was filled to the brimming over point of genuine patriotic enthusiasm because he knows and understands the underlying principles of the Declaration of Independence far better than the present generation of Americans.

the high recklessness of exalted devotion which does not count the cost. We are made by these tragic, epic things to know what it costs to make a nation—the blood and sacrifice of multitudes of unknown men lifted to a great stature in the view of all generations by knowing no limit to their manly willingness to serve. In armies thus marshaled from the ranks of free men you will see, as it were, a nation embattled, the leaders and the led, and may know, if you will, how little except in form its action differs in days of peace from its action in days of war.

May we break camp now and be at ease? Are the forces that fight for the nation dispersed, disbanded, gone to their homes, forgetful of the common cause? Are our forces disorganized, without constituted leaders and the might of men consciously united because we contend not with armies, but with principalities and powers and wickedness in high places? Are we content to lie still? Does our union mean sympathy, our peace contentment, our vigor right action, our maturity self comprehension and a clear confidence in choosing what we shall do? War fitted us for action and action never ceases.

I have been chosen the leader of the nation. I cannot justify the choice by any qualities of my own, but so it has come about, and here I stand. Whom do I command? The ghostly hosts who fought upon these battlefields long ago and are gone? These gallant gentlemen stricken in years, whose fighting days are over, their glory won? What are the orders for them, and who rallies them? I have in my mind another host, whom these set free of civil strife in order that they might work out in days of peace and settled order the life of a great nation. That host is the people themselves, the great and the small, without class or difference of kind or race or origin and undivided in interest, if we have but the vision to guide and direct them and order their lives aright in what we do. Our constitutions are their articles of enlistment. The orders of the day are the laws upon our statute books. What we strive for is their freedom, their right to lift themselves from day to day and behold the things they have hoped for and so make way for still better days for those whom they love who are to come after them. The recruits are the little children crowding in. The quartermaster's stores are in the mines and forests and fields, in the shops and factories. Every day something must be done to push the campaign forward, and it must be done by plan and with an eye to some great destiny.

How shall we hold such thoughts in our hearts and not be moved? I would not have you live even today wholly in the past, but would wish to stand with you in the light that streams upon us now out of that great day gone by. Here is the nation God has builded by our hands. What shall we do with it? Who stands ready to act again and always in the spirit of this day of reunion and hope and patriotic fervor? The day of our country's life has but broadened into morning. Do not put uniforms by. Put the harness of the present on. Lift your eyes to the great tracts of life yet to be conquered in the interest of righteous peace, of that prosperity which lies in a people's hearts and outlasts all wars and errors of men. Come; let us be comrades and soldiers yet to serve our fellow men in quiet counsel, where the blare of trumpets is neither heard nor heeded and where the things are done which make blessed the nations of the world in peace and righteousness and love.

Lincoln's Eloquent Gettysburg Speech

Fifty years ago another president of the United States made an address on the battlefield of Gettysburg. President Lincoln during the storm and stress of war journeyed from Washington to take part in the dedication of a portion of the scene of the bloody conflict, and on Nov. 19, 1863, he delivered a short address that will live as long as the English tongue is spoken. Here is the famous Lincoln Gettysburg address in full:

Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow, this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

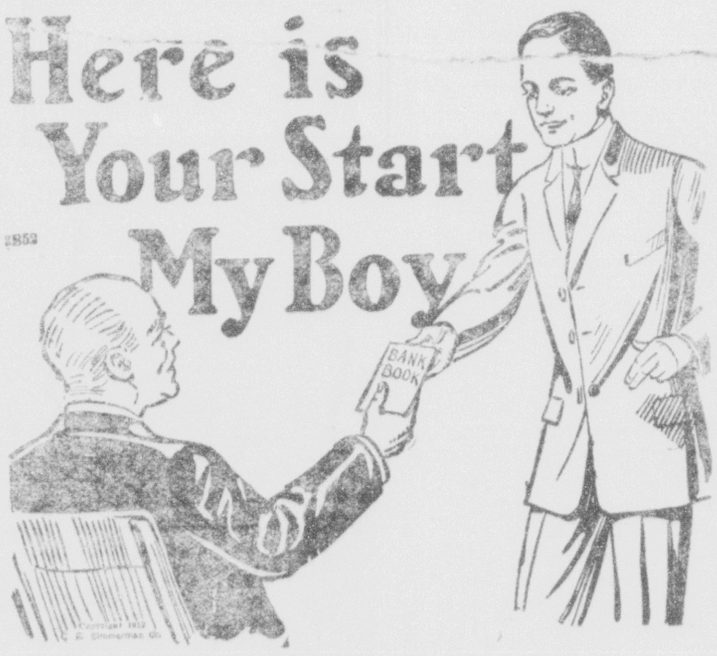
Here is Your Start My Boy



THE BEST PRESENT IN THE WORLD FOR A YOUNG MAN IS A bank book. A book made out in his name showing even one dollar held to his credit in the bank gives him a feeling of rightful pride and self-reliance that he will be quick to add to by weekly savings of his own.

The habit of saving is best formed in youth and the way to start a boy is to open an account and point the way.

A gift of money is a questionable benefit to even the soundest boy; the temptation to squander it is great if you place a large sum in his pocket.

FLEEING BULGARS BUTCHER GREEKS

King Constantine Confirms Report of Massacre.

SMALLER GREEK VICTORIES.

Bulgarians Lose Number of Small Fights Near Saloniki—Hundreds Reported Drowned—Vanquished Soldiers Become Panic Stricken.

London, July 5.—King Constantine of Greece telegraphed personally to the Greek minister here, confirming the report of the massacre of Greek soldiers by Bulgarians in Macedonia and the extermination under the most horrible circumstances of the Greek populations in the villages through which the Bulgarians retreated.

The Times thinks that the checks the Bulgarians have received are calculated to give Bulgaria pause and that it may before long be glad to avail itself of the Russian emperor's good offices, especially in view of the attitude of Rumania.

A Sofia dispatch to the Times says that the Bulgarian troops were ordered to retire to the positions which they occupied before the Greek and Servian attacks. The Servian advance toward Istip, adds the dispatch, was said to have been repulsed and four Servian regiments which were surrounded were expected to surrender.

Greeks Repulse Bulgarians.

Saloniki, July 5.—Since their victory over the Bulgarians at Kilkish the Greek troops have been successful in a number of smaller engagements in which the fighting was very severe. They are driving the Bulgarians before them toward the north and east. During the fighting which resulted in the occupation of Ghovgheli by the Greeks the Bulgarians became panic stricken and hundreds of them jumped into the River Vardar and were drowned.

Servian Success Temporary.

Vienna, July 5.—Lieutenant Herminiglide Wagner, the war correspondent of the Reichspost, telegraphs from the front that the Servian army suffered terribly at Ovchepolyo and that the Servian victory over the Bulgarians at Istip was only a momentary success of small importance. The Bulgarian movement against Saloniki, he says, is being continued successfully, and portions of the Greek army have begun to retreat.

STUBBS SAILS FOR EUROPE

Former Kansas Governor Gets Letters of Introduction From Bryan.

Washington, July 5.—Former Governor Walter R. Stubbs of Kansas called at the state department and was equipped by Secretary Bryan with letters of introduction to American ambassadors and ministers in Europe and officials of the European governments with whom the secretary has a personal acquaintance.

With his wife and children, Mr. Stubbs sailed from New York today directly to Naples and will spend an indefinite period of time on the continent looking into the conditions of agriculture, with special reference to farm credits.

He also will give attention to the German system of canalization, with special reference to its application to the needs of the Mississippi valley states.

YANKEE BARS KAISER'S BEER

Allison Armour Explains He Saves $1,000 a Year by Not Drinking.

Berlin, July 5.—The Kiel correspondent of the National Zeitung says Allison B. Armour took the late J. Pierpont Morgan's place as the kaiser's chief guest at the annual beer evening at the Little Bordy tavern.

The neighbors of Mr. Armour were surprised to see that he did not smoke and that he drank only a glass of lemonade. In reply to a question he said:

"I am a teetotaler, and I shall tell you why. By not smoking and be refraining from the use of malt or spirituous liquors I save $1,000 every year. You see it is well worth while to be a total abstainer."

Killed Making "Slide for Life."

Chautauqua, N. Y., July 5.—Oscar Williams, a steeplejack by trade, was instantly killed at Mayville while performing a "slide for life," hanging by his teeth to a pulley on a rope stretched from the court house to a tree about 350 feet distant. He succeeded in making the slide, but the buffer of grain sacks proved inadequate and his brains were dashed out against the tree.

Americans Abroad Celebrate Fourth.

London, July 5.—Walter Hines Page, the new American ambassador, held his first Fourth of July celebration at Claridge hotel, the whole ground floor of which had been transformed to accommodate the 4,000 visiting and resident Americans and persons prominent in British diplomatic and social life.

Balloonist Killed.

Bowling Green, O., July 5.—Clarence Crosby of Toledo was instantly killed when he fell 500 feet from his balloon while making an ascension before 8,000 people.

MEXICAN REBELS BESIEGE CHIHUAHUA

Twenty-five Hundred Insurgents Surround City.

Chihuahua, Mex., July 5.—Chihuahua is in a desperate situation, surrounded by 2,500 rebels. The federals daily indulge in cannon fire, throwing shells in the surrounding hills.

They fired at rebels at the American Smelting and Refining company's plant, doing considerable damage. One shell exploded near the home of Manager J. R. Enlow. The plant was closed and all American families moved into Chihuahua city.

There is a shortage in provisions, with little hope of relief, as all railroads are in possession of the rebels. Rebel activity has forced the mines to close in Santa Eulalia, Cusihuiriachic, Yoquivo, Concheno and several other djstricts and 10,000 men have been thrown out of work, many of them are joining the rebels.

CHANGES IN TARIFF BILL

All Schedules but Two Effective When Measure Is Enacted.

Washington, July 5.—Majority members of the senate finance committee decided that all schedules of the new tariff bill, except sugar and wool, should become effective immediately after the enactment of the measure into law. Sugar, with the approval of the Democratic caucus, will be subject to the Payne-Aldrich rates until March 1, 1914. The committee tentatively agreed upon a date for the wool schedule, but did not announce it, because of a promise to confer with Senators Walsh and Thomas before the final sessions of the caucus. Additional revenue was provided for by the committee when it decided in view of the revenue tax on brandies used in fortifying sweet wines to levy a revenue tax of 25 per cent ad valorem on what are known as "spurious wines, wines made from pummis and fortified with chemicals.

Another change proposed relates to the clause prohibiting importation of convict made goods. It was amended so as to read that such goods be excluded from countries which do not "prohibit" convict labor. Originally the clause read from countries which did not "restrict" convict labor.

Police Save Slayer of Boy.

Newport, R. I., July 5.—Ten thousand people, men and women, witnessed a riot on Newport beach when a negro fleeing from a sailor he had stabbed in the back, shot and killed a fourteen-year-old boy. For nearly an hour police reserves battled desperately with the mob, which was determined to get possession of the negro. Only by carrying him into the surf and holding him in the water up to his neck, beyond the reach of the crowd, did the police succeed in retaining him.

Killed in Collision.

Medford, Ore., July 5.—Don Helms was killed when the car he was driving in a five-mile automobile race collided with another car and turned turtle.

154 Peasants Burn to Death.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—One hundred and fifty-four peasants were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the village of Astradamovkao.

SLAIN WOMAN IDENTIFIED

Harvey Woodruff Views Body of Wife and Then Faints.

Chicago, July 5.—Identification of the woman victim of the mysterious west side murder as Mrs. Flossie Woodruff, the fifty-year-old wife of Harvey Woodruff, a restaurant cashier, was made complete when Woodruff viewed the body.

"It's Flossie," he exclaimed, and fainted.

Woodruff, his wife and Mrs. Mabel Joslin, a friend, had attended a circus early in the evening. Woodruff left them to return to work and the women said they would go home. Instead, they stopped at a west side saloon, where they met an Italian. Mrs. Woodruff and the man left the place together. Mrs. Joslin expected them to return momentarily, but she had seen the last of her friend alive. Her body was found in an alley with the throat cut.

Twelve Children Injured.

Pittsburgh, July 5.—Several hundred school children assembling on the streets of West Pittsburgh, preparing for the school parade, were scattered by an uncontrolled automobile that plunged through the crowd. John Gronawalt, aged four, was killed and twelve other children, ranging in age from eight to eleven years, were knocked down. Abe Yuengling, aged twenty-five, the driver of the car, was roughly handled by the mothers of some of the children. They almost stripped him of clothing.

German War Minister Resigns.

Berlin, July 5.—General Josiah von Hoeringen, who has been minister of war since Aug. 12, 1909, resigned his post, giving overwork as the reason. He has been appointed inspector of the second army corps, the headquarters of which are in Berlin. His successor has not yet been selected.

Twenty-nine Injured at St. Louis.

St. Louis, July 5.—Twenty-five fires and the injury of twenty-nine persons marred the celebration of Independence day here in spite of elaborate plans for a "sane and safe Fourth."

RITCHIE WINS IN ELEVENTH

'Frisco Boy is Still World's Lightweight Champion.

RIVERS PUTS UP GOOD FIGHT.

San Francisco, July 5.—A wicked right cross—the same blow which forced Ad Wolgast to foul away the lightweight championship after feeling its sting—proved too great a stumbling block to Joe Rivers in his attempt to wrest the lightweight title from Champion Willie Ritchie, the Mexican being knocked out in the eleventh round of a scheduled twenty-round battle.

Immediately preceding the knockout Ritchie toppled his victim over for the count of nine with a right to the jaw and another right to the chin, preceded by a left to the stomach, settled Rivers' chances as a lightweight contender.

The fight throughout was viciously contested, and twice during the earlier rounds it looked as though Rivers might win. Ritchie's wonderful generalship and ability to strike effectively straight from the shoulder with either hand, however, offset the Mexican's tremendous swings, which frequently found their mark.

The battle was witnessed by 7,000 persons. The receipts aggregated $30,000.

Cross Knocks Out "Bud" Anderson.

Los Angeles, July 5.—With a right swing to the jaw Leach Cross, the New York lightweight, finished "Bud" Anderson of Oregon in the twelfth round of what was carded to have been a twenty-round battle at the Vernon arena. The blow landed with terrible force and Anderson was out for more than four minutes.

Dundee Gets Decision Over Dixon.

Albuquerque, N. M., July 5.—Johnny Dundee of New York got the decision over Tommy Dixon of Kansas City at the end of a ten-round fight here. Three knockdowns were scored by Dundee.

WILDING KEEPS TENNIS TITLE

New Zealander Defeats McLoughlin in Straight Sets.

Wimbledon, July 5.—A. F. Wilding of New Zealand, holder of the title of all-England singles lawn tennis champions since 1910, retained the championship by beating Maurice E. McLoughlin of San Francisco, national lawn tennis champion of the United States, by three straight sets, 8-6, 6-3, 10-8.

Wilding played the greatest game of his life. The match from start to finish was of the heroic order, but while the American made many brilliant recoveries, he proved hardly a match for his older and more experienced opponent.

Aviator Fatally Hurt.

Prosser, Wash., July 5.—Harvey Crawford, a young aviator, under contract with a carnival company of Seattle, was probably fatally injured when his aeroplane turned turtle as he was making a landing after an exhibition flight here. His right arm was broken, his body was frightfully bruised and it is believed he was internally injured. Fear of plowing through the crowd that gathered at the landing place caused the accident.

Bullet Hits Woman.

Kansas City, July 5.—A bullet fired by a negro at George Wern, also a negro, in the course of a quarrel here, struck Wern on the forehead, glanced from his skull and wounded Mrs. Edward T. Smith, sixty years old, who was passing in a street car. Mrs. Smith was treated at the city hospital and her wound pronounced not serious. Wern after mopping his brow, went about his business. The negro who fired the shot escaped.

Des Moines Man Wins Forty-Mile Race

Sioux City, Ia., July 5.—George Mason of Des Moines, driving a Mason Special, won the forty-mile race, the feature event of the first day's racing card at the Sioux City two-mile speedway. His time was :32:36. Louis Disbrow, driving his 290-horse power Jay-Eye-See, failed to lower the world's dirt track record for a mile, although he covered the distance in 44 seconds.

AMERICAN FLAG IS TRAMPLED AND TORN

Winnipeg Mob Objects to Display of Old Glory During Parade.

Winnipeg, Man., July 5.—The waving of the flag of the United States here, while thousands of provincial soldiers were parading the streets, precipitated a riot, during which the flag was trampled and torn and a number received minor injuries.

The incident occurred as thousands of soldiers from Winnipeg and Manitoba were marching through the city on their return from annual camp at Sewell. When the Hundredth regiment was before a local bank, an American appeared on the curbing waving an American flag and shouting, "Hurrah for the American eagle." J. B. Mitchell, colonel in command of the regiment, ordered one of his men to request the American to put away the flag, but before the soldier could do so, a number of angry civilians pounced upon the American, tore the flag from him, and threw it into the street. Before it could be rescued the flag was torn and dirtied.

In the free for all fight which followed a number of civilians were injured, but none seriously. The American, whose name could not be ascertained, escaped without serious harm and, with the aid of the police, eluded the crowd.

Mexican Flag Torn Down.

Tucson, Ariz., July 5.—The flag flying above the Mexican consulate was torn down and trampled during the Fourth of July celebration here. Reports of the incident vary, some saying the act was committed by Americans, others that the flag was desecrated by Mexican sympathizers with the constitutional movement in Sonora. The Mexican consul called on state and federal authorities for apologies, but none was given pending an investigation.

LIVED ON RAW EGGS

Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Cecilton, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.

What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.

He says: "For more than 12 years, I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.

I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs.

I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.

I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Thedford's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.

I have been working daily on the farm ever since, and I am as hard as iron." This purely vegetable remedy has been in successful use for more than 70 years. Try it. But be sure that it's "Thedford's."

ATTEMPTED TO PICK POCKET.

Robert Blair Caught in Act and Given Fine of $10 and Costs.

A near pickpocket was the cause of much excitement and a long chase Friday afternoon which resulted in his being caught and imprisoned without the satisfaction of having stolen anything.

George Murray, who lives near Skidmore, was standing in Mark Turner's store when he felt a strange hand in one of his pockets. Fortunately it was not his money pocket, and the hand could find nothing to steal. Nevertheless, Mr. Murray grabbed for the owner of the hand but missed him.

The pickpocket started down the street with Mr. Murray right after him. He turned south on Main street, and a big crowd was soon following him at breakneck speed. He ran down the alley at First street and into the house of Charles Thorp. As he went through the house he put on his coat, and when he came out of the front door he said very unconcernedly to some passerby, "I can't find him in that house." Then he walked back toward town.

As he passed the Forsyth market Luther Forsyth recognized him and called Eph Tilton, who was near, to arrest him. Tilton arrested the man, and then gave him up to Sheriff Wallace, who locked him up.

Before Justice W. L. Johnson this afternoon the prisoner gave his name as Robert Blair. He was charged and convicted of attempt at petty larceny. He was fined $10 and costs, which amounted to $19. He paid the fine and was freed at once.

COL. M. M. MULHALL.

Confessed Lobbyist Whose Startling Charges Will Be Investigated by Congress.

Mulhall's startling allegations that representatives, senators and high officials of the government had been "reached" or "influenced," that the lobby conducted its operations from a room in the capitol, paid money to employees there, took an active hand in making up committees and went out actively in the political campaigns to defeat congressmen who opposed legislation the lobby wanted, have thrown congressional circles into an uproar. A rigid investigation of Colonel Mulhall's charges is promised by both the senate and house of representatives.

DAVID LAMAR DREW STANLEY RESOLUTION

Anti-Trust League Head Confirms Broker's Statement.

Washington, July 4.—Confirmation of David Lamar's claim that it was he who drew the congressional resolution under which the Stanley committee investigated the United States Steel corporation was given to the senate lobby committee by Henry B. Martin, head of the so called "Anti-Trust league."

Martin's testimony was corroborative and supplementary to Lamar's on several points. He testified that after Lamar drew the steel trust investigating resolution, he, Martin, induced Representative Stanley to introduce it. He did not tell Stanley that Lamar was its author, but did not try to suppress the fact. He disclaimed knowledge that Lamar had used the resolution before introduction in dealings with financiers and protested he knew nothing of Lamar's telephone impersonations.

Persistent questioning by the senators failed to make Martin divulge what the "Anti-Trust league" was or who composed it. He declined to give names of members or tell of the disposition of thousands of dollars he said it had spent.

TRADE REVIEW FOR THE WEEK

Hot Weather Over Country Curtails Retail Distribution.

RAINS IMPROVE CROP OUTLOOK

Lull in Iron and Steel Trade Continues as to Finished Lines, but Pig Iron Is in Larger Demand—Bank Exchanges Show Gain.

New York, July 4.—Dun's Review tomorrow will say: High temperatures throughout most of the country curtailed retail distribution somewhat, while the holiday accentuated slightly the prevailing dullness in most wholesale lines. Needed rains in the agricultural regions have improved the crop outlook and harvesting of winter wheat is progressing under ideal circumstances. Private estimates indicate some gain in cotton prospects, while the government report on Thursday placed the condition at 81.8 per cent, against 80.4 a year ago. The submission of a practical plan for separating the stock interests of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads was, on the whole, a favorable factor in investment markets, although renewed war in the Balkans, this time between the allies, renders the European monetary situation more unsettled.

The lull in the iron and steel trade continues as to finished lines, but a larger demand for pig iron appeared during the week than for several months past. Buying of equipment by the railroads has been restricted of late, but a fair volume of new business is coming forward in finished products. Stocks of the leading textile distributors and retailers at the end of the first half year is being confined to immediate needs until the tariff bill, now nearing its final stage, has been passed.

Business in leather shows an improvement, a steadier demand for all grades, and footwear salesmen report fair sized orders for immediate delivery, although contracts for spring are below expectations. Railroad gross earnings so far for June show an increase of 7.8 per cent as compared with the same month a year ago.

Total bank exchanges at 120 leading centers during June made a gain of 0.4 per cent over the same month last year, but a loss of 0.8 per cent as compared with the corresponding month in 1911.

Failures this week are 230, against 197 the corresponding week last year.

BALKAN WAR NOT DECLARED

But Hot Fighting Is in Progress All Along the Line.

London, July 4.—The twenty-four hours which the Bulgarian government accorded to Greece and Servia to cease operations have expired. During the same period Bulgaria undertook to abstain from hostilities in order to give Russia time to intervene in favor of peace. But hostilities are being carried on by both sides, apparently with the fierceness characteristic of the Balkan soldiers; and no declaration of war has yet been made. The respective diplomatic representatives are still at their posts.

A dispatch from Athens announces that the Greeks have occupied Nigrita, to the northeast of Saloniki, which they found burning, the inhabitants having been massacred by the Bulgarians.

JOHNSON BOND NOT FORFEIT

Government's Motion Is Denied by Judge Carpenter.

Chicago, July 4.—The government's motion for forfeiture of the $30,000 bond of Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, to secure his appearance for trial Oct. 13, was denied by Federal Judge Carpenter here.

This bond was on an indictment charging Johnson with white slavery in transporting Belle Schreiber from Milwaukee to Chicago. The case in which the fighter was convicted was bringing the Schreiber woman from Pittsburgh to this city.

He appealed and pending decision was allowed his liberty on $15,000 bail.

Judge Carpenter stated that precedent does not warrant forfeiting a bond merely because the defendant had left the jurisdiction of the court.

'Frisco Postmaster Refuses to Resign.

San Francisco, July 4.—In reply to a demand, following a request from Postmaster General Burleson, Arthur G. Fisk again refused to resign as postmaster of San Francisco.
